

I. Not carried away by false teaching

A. Influences at work on us

B. Diverse lies but a common thread

II. Strengthened by grace

Application Questions

- Are you purposeful about the sources that influence you?
- Take stock of how much you attend to different influences. Would an outside observer think that your heart is being strengthened by grace?
- When you think about where you look for strength, can you identify unprofitable lies of the culture that have been controlling your mind? Are there sources of these lies that you need to cut off?
- How can your heart derive its strength more consistently from Jesus' grace?
