Family Sermon Discussion Questions:

1. What does the context of Matthew 11 teach us about God’s sovereignty and man’s responsibility and the Gospel offer?
2. What does it mean that Christ’s heart is meek and lowly? What does it not mean? How does this encourage sinners coming to Him by faith?
3. Think about several examples from the life of Christ where His heart is put on display by His actions. What can we learn from those examples? How do these examples make the Savior precious?
4. Explain: Christ needed to have a meek and lowly heart to be our Savior and to be able to suffer.
5. * What does it mean that Jesus is meek and lowly? What examples from Scripture show that to us? How does His Heart encourage sinners to come to Jesus?

Question for self-reflection:

Are these verses in line with your view of who Christ is? Why, or why not? (How) do they change your view?
