Family Sermon Discussion Questions:

1. What important truth do we learn about Jesus in Matt. 11:27?

2. Why is this truth so important when we focus on the “Me” of verse 28?

3. Why is it so important to realize that it is Immanuel who is extending this gospel invitation?

- 4*. Why is it so precious that we may come to Jesus at once—and thus without any delay?

5. Why is the phrase “all ye that labor and are heavy laden” a reference to all sinners?

- 6*. How can we be sure that we may also come to Jesus?

7. What rest will sinners experience upon coming to Jesus?

8. How does the text imply that we may repeatedly come to Jesus?

The nature of that comfort

• Purchased by Christ

1: What does it mean to belong to Christ

2*: Why is Jesus blood precious?

3: How do you know that Jesus' blood saves us from all our sins?

• Preserved by Christ

4: What can you see about the character of the Father when Jesus preserves us in accordance with the will of the Father?

5*: What does it mean that not a hair can fall of your head without the will of God?

6: What does it mean that all things shall be subservient to my salvation?

• Assured by Christ

7: Why is assurance of faith important?

The experience of that comfort

• Misery

8*: What is sin?

9*: What is misery?

10: Why is it necessary to experientially know your sin and misery?

• Deliverance

11: Why is it necessary to experientially know your deliverance?

• Gratitude

12: Why is it necessary to experientially know how to express your gratitude?

Question for self-reflection:

What is your only comfort in life and death?
