

A BEAUTIFUL HOUSE, BUT AN UGLY HOME – SIGNS OF A DYSFUNCTIONAL HOME

2/9/2020

5th message: When God is not Seen

Text: Esther

Theme: Looking into the home of a dysfunctional family.

Queen Esther. Sounds good doesn't it? The wife of the king in the largest kingdom of the world.... sounds glamorous doesn't it?

I. Signs that your home is dysfunctional and unbiblical

What Ahasuerus concluded is that men needed more authority and women needed more fear

This "marriage" wasn't about love, it was about lust

So, Esther is now queen!

But do you think she felt secure?

Do you think she felt loved?

He was revered, out of fear...

II. Signs of hope in a dysfunctional and unbiblical home

1. Build your family on the foundation of Christ
2. Demonstrate Christ-likeness
3. Use the Word of God as your guide
4. Love one another – fulfilling each other's biblical needs – and God's command
5. Recognize your ultimate expectation and fulfillment is found in God
