

The Penitent Prophet Prays (Jonah 2:1-9)

- I. Introduction
  - A. Charles Spurgeon on Acts 14:22
  - B. Review of the narrative of Jonah – part 1, cliffhanger, and resolution
a portrait of Rom 11:22 – the goodness and severity of God
  - C. Setting the course for the message
- II. The Lord hears our cries for salvation (Jonah 2:1-2)
  - A. The audacity of Jonah to pray
    - 1. God is “HIS God”
    - 2. Jonah bears 2 marks of a true son (Heb 12:7, Ro 8:15)
  - B. Jonah is in travail and God hears (Ge 32:11, Ps 18:46, Lk 22:44)
  - C. When you are in a hopeless place, where do you run?
    - 1. The throne of grace and mercy (Heb 4:16)
      - a. Do you go to the throne of grace? If not, why not?
  - D. The hopelessness of unbelievers – God hears! (Mt 11:28, Jn 6:37)
- III. The Lord saves us from Himself (Jonah 2:3-4)
  - A. Is it really better to live away from the presence of God?
  - B. Jonah sensed God’s hand upon him heavily in his circumstances
    - 1. God’s children understand that affliction is a means of grace through which they are conformed to His image.
  - C. By using afflictions, God is saving us from His own eternal wrath
  - D. 1 John 4:10: the cross saves us ultimately from God
  - E. Is an angry God consistent with ‘good news?’
    - 1. Has the church been neglecting an important means of grace?
- IV. Salvation is entirely of the Lord (Jonah 2:5-6)
  - A. Jonah is hopeless to save himself in this situation
    - 1. He finally understands his own depravity
    - 2. self-righteousness and self-sufficiency: a deadly combination
      - a. marks of self-righteousness: presumption, grumbling, comparison
      - b. marks of self-sufficiency: unwillingness to receive help
  - B. Total Depravity is still a minority view in the church today
    - 1. our minds, consciences, hearts, and wills are radically corrupted by the fall of Adam (Tit 1:15, Jer 17:9, Rom 7:18, Eph 4:18,)
    - 2. We can do nothing good (Ro 8:8, Jo 15:5, 8:34, Ep 2:1, Is 64:6)
    - 3. We are unable to believe and follow Christ (1 Co 2:14, Jo 6:44)
- V. The Lord saves through repentance and faith (Jonah 2:7-8)
  - A. Jonah repented of his idol of a God of justice who had no mercy
    - 1. We must repent of our idolatry
  - B. Jonah’s sanctified affliction fanned the burning ember of faith
    - 1. Jonah looked to the temple – the place of sacrifice
    - 2. Jonah’s faith was evident in believing what he had not yet seen
  - C. So we must live by faith
- VI. Salvation produces thanksgiving and a new sense of consecration
  - A. By faith, Jonah is confident that his commission will be restored
