

LAW & GOSPEL
Social or Biblical Justice
Micah 6:8

Mac Williams, Pastor
March 10, 2019

1. The context of social justice in American culture.

- a. In classical Marxism, the workers of the world were oppressed by the ruling classes. In cultural Marxism, _____ in society are psychologically oppressed by the traditional institutions of Western culture. So society is split into two main groups: the oppressors and the victims.
- b. The oppressors are identified as white, able bodied, native born American, cis-gendered _____.
- c. The _____ are African Americans, racial minorities, women, LGBTQ+, etc.
- d. Social justice consists of obtaining _____ in wealth, opportunities, and privileges for the victims of society.

2. The call to Biblical justice.

- a. God, in His kindness, has revealed to man what is truly _____ and beneficial.

- b. God, in His righteousness, calls man to treat others justly, in accordance with what His _____, (especially commandments 5-10) requires.
- c. God, in His covenant mercy, calls man to _____ in showing kindness—especially to those who do not deserve it.
- d. God as the sovereign Lord, calls man to be in right relationship with Him according to commandments 1-4, and to live out that relationship in true _____.