

PHILIPPIANS
Lights In This World
Philippians 2:14-16a

Mac Williams, Pastor
February 25, 2018

1. As Christians work out their salvation, they are to do _____ things without grumbling or disputing.

a. In their relationship with their Lord, believers are not to grumble or dispute about:

1) Their obedience to His _____.

“The point is to exclude an attitude that must challenge and _____ rather than joyfully submit.” - Matthew Harmon

2) Their response to His _____.

b. In their relationships with _____, believers are not to sinfully grumble or dispute in their conflicts.

c. However there is a place for believers to have _____ disputes with others where there is sin and false teaching.

2. As Christians work out their salvation, they will shine forth as _____ in a dark and fallen world.

a. Believers are called to live their lives in such a way that their reputation is a _____ one.

b. The believer’s pursuit of purity in life is evidence that they truly are a _____ of God.

c. Believers often live in the _____ of a society that is morally corrupt but they must be on guard so that they are not caught up in the corruption.

d. Believers are able to shine forth as lights in a dark world as they hold firmly to the _____ of life.

*“We are said to carry the word of life in such a way as to be, in the mean time, _____ by it, inasmuch as we are founded upon it.”
- John Calvin*