

C.A.R.E. Group Questions 3/1/20

1. If it is true that the chief enemy of trust is pride, then practically speaking, how do we combat that in ourselves? What are areas where pride is especially dangerous?
2. Why are “lovingkindness” and “truth” (or “faithfulness”) defining characteristics of God?
3. 115:3 is a powerful statement about the Lord. How important is God’s sovereignty in our knowledge and worship of Him?
4. We know that an omniscient God cannot forget, so what does it mean that God “remembers” us? And how does the fact that God does “not remember” our sin give us an accurate picture of His grace and salvation?
5. How do we persevere in these last days in our trust of a God we cannot see and in a return that we cannot put on a calendar?
