Enough about Them, Let's Talk about "You"

God's Judgment on Those Who Judge Supposing Themselves Exempt

Romans 2:1-16

- I. Judgers are Not Exempt from Judgment
- II. All will be Judged, Each according to His Deeds
- III. There Is No Partiality with God

Examine the Scriptures (Be Berean!)

- Romans 1
- Romans 14:10
- Mat 25
- 2 Cor 5:10

Consider & Discuss (Be Transformed!)

- Who is Paul addressing in 2:1-16, i.e., who is "you" of 2:1 and following?
- How can you benefit from listening to Paul speak to "you"?
- Why is the one who judges without excuse himself according to verse 1?
- How does Paul shake up your thinking by saying that God will render to each person according to his deeds in 2:6ff?
- What is "the day of wrath" (v. 5); and do Christians have to stand before God in that day or are we exempt?
- What are the implications of Paul's statement that, "There is no partiality with God" in regards to judgment?
- What are the implications of Paul's statement that, "There is no partiality with God" in regards to salvation?

Memory & Meditation Verse

"For there is no partiality with God." Romans 2:11 (NASB)
