Jesus Forsaken as the Great Substitute

1. Forsaken of the Father

2. Bearing the burden of sin

3. For the salvation of His people

Prayer

Giving of our offerings to the Lord's service***

Psalter 174: All**

Doxology: Psalter 197**

Benediction

*** Please do so when you exit

1. What did the utter darkness represent?
2. Why was being forsaken by the Father the greatest punishment for sin that fell on Jesus?
- 3*. For whom was Jesus forsaken by His Father on the cross?
4. How does Jesus' cry express the seriousness of sin?
5. How does Jesus' cry express the inflexibility of God's justice?
- 6*. What is a substitute, and how is Jesus the substitute of His people?
7. How does Jesus' cry reveal the basis of our salvation?
8. How does Jesus' cry express His love for His people?

Question for self-reflection:

1. No-one can plumb the depth of Jesus' suffering expressed in this cry. Nevertheless, has the wrath of God over sin become a reality to you?
2. Have you come to see your need for Jesus to also be your great substitute?
3. If you partook at the Lord's Supper, and you have remembered Christ's suffering, how will you sacrifice your life a living sacrifice for Him?
