Psalm 130:1–8 Tune: Martyrdom, #85

The day of Christ's coming is a day of manifestation.

All is now hidden.

Christ is hidden,

the saints are hidden,

their life is hidden (Col. 3:3),

their glory is hidden,

but then shall Christ appear,

and we shall appear with him in glory . . .

It is a day of perfection . . .

Here we are very weak . . .

there is some fruit of sin continued upon the body;

but then body and soul are united,

and perfectly glorified to praise God in heaven . . .

It is a day of congregation, or gathering together.

The saints are now scattered,

they live in various countries and ages,

but then all meet in one assembly and congregation.

[We have] an earnest, well-grounded expectation
of blessedness to come.

Thomas Manton (17th century English Puritan)

OUR CHURCH

We are a congregation of the Free Church of Scotland (Continuing), which has a presbytery in North America. The Free Church traces its historical roots back to the Protestant Reformation in Scotland, which began in 1560. The same biblical truths and spiritual identity have been maintained to the present day. Our doctrinal standards are the original 17th century version of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Larger and Shorter Catechisms. Further detailed information about our doctrine, worship, government, and practice are available on the book table and in the church library.
