

ISAIAH
The Reign of Christ the King
Isaiah 32:1-20

Mac Williams, Pastor
March 13, 2016

- 1. Great blessing is evident when there is righteous _____, which points us ultimately to the reign of Christ the King.
- a. Righteousness and _____ are great blessings from living under a government that honors God.

  - b. The shelter that righteous rulers give enables the citizens to have true _____.

  - c. A _____ understanding of right and wrong will lead to sound judgment.
    - 1) _____ and rogues will be recognized for what they really are and not considered to be noble.

    - 2) The schemes of fools war against _____ and devise evil against man.

- 3) The _____ man is enabled by God to make wise plans and advance God's kingdom.
- 2. It is important to be cautious of complacency and encouraged by the fact that the Lord preserves, _____, and blesses His Church.
- a. When material prosperity lulls into complacency about the Lord and His kingdom, we must _____ and call out to Him.

  - b. It is in the midst of God's work of judgment that a work of _____-renewal is promised.
    - 1) The Holy Spirit brings about _____ and fruitful change in people's lives.

    - 2) The Holy Spirit brings about a _____ that loves and practices righteousness.

    - 3) The Holy Spirit brings about a genuine inward _____ and blesses with outward peace as well.