THE KEY TO CHRIST-LIKENESS! Following Jesus – The Heart of a Servant

Matthew 20:20-28

Pastor Mel Svendsen March 12, 2017

Bottom Line:

Jesus modeled for us what it meant to live a life of servanthood. He truly was the perfect serveant-leader and demonstrated for us the lifestyle that He expects all of His followers to duplicate.

Error #1. To look out only for ______ without looking out for the needs of others! Matthew 20:20-21 What Self-centered living looks like: - Put yourself first in line. - Make sure you receive the best of what is available. Seize the opportunity to pomote yourself at the expense of others. *What Jesus highly values is: A _____ heart. Error #2. To make a _____ without understanding the cost. Matthew 20:22-23 *What Jesus highly values is: A selfless heart that will ______. John14:15; John 16:33

*What Jesus highly values is: A selfless heart that will follow by	Error #3. To think that God's greatest desire for you is to see you exquisitely! Matthew 20:24-28  *What Jesus highly values is: A selfless heart that will follow
Being a servant doesn't mean:  1) You become a
1) You become a	by	John 13:1-7
<ol> <li>You get taken advantage of by those who do nothing (or little) for themselves.</li> <li>You can't help find a path to get them out of their dilemma or gather more to help.</li> <li>You neglect your primary areas of service         -Your and your</li> <li>Now What? Some Key Questions</li> <li>Are you to opportunities to serve others around you? (or do you run from them?)</li> <li>When was the last time you served someone knowing there was of that person returning the favor?</li> <li>When have you served someone, blessing them in some</li> </ol>	Being a servant doesn't me	ean:
little) for themselves.  3) You can't help find a path to get them out of their dilemma or gather more to help.  4) You neglect your primary areas of service  -Your and your and your  Now What? Some Key Questions  1) Are you to opportunities to serve others around you? (or do you run from them?)  2) When was the last time you served someone knowing there was of that person returning the favor?  3) When have you served someone, blessing them in some	1) You become a	for people.
dilemma or gather more to help.  4) You neglect your primary areas of service  -Your and your  Now What? Some Key Questions  1) Are you to opportunities to serve others around you? (or do you run from them?)  2) When was the last time you served someone knowing there was of that person returning the favor?  3) When have you served someone, blessing them in some -Your and your  Now What? Some Key Questions  1) Are you to opportunities to serve others around you? (or do you run from them?)  2) When was the last time you served someone knowing there was of that person returning the favor?  3) When have you served someone, blessing them in some Now What? Some Key Questions  1) Are you to opportunities to serve others around you? (or do you run from them?)  2) When was the last time you served someone knowing there was of that person returning the favor?  3) When have you served someone, blessing them in some	4) You neglect your prin	nary areas of service
<ol> <li>Are you to opportunities to serve others around you? (or do you run from them?)</li> <li>When was the last time you served someone knowing there was of that person returning the favor?</li> <li>When have you served someone, blessing them in some</li> </ol>	-Your	and your around you? (or do you run from them?)  2) When was the last time you served someone knowing there was of that person returning the favor?  3) When have you served someone, blessing them in some	Now What? Some Key Qu	estions
there was of that person returning the favor?  3) When have you served someone, blessing them in some	- of that person returning the favor?  3) When have you served someone, blessing them in some	2) When was the last tim	e you served someone knowing ng the favor?
way withoutknowing?	3) When have you served	someone, blessing them in some way without	knowing?