

ZECHARIAH
Exceedingly Jealous, Very Angry
Zechariah 1:13-21

Mac Williams, Pastor
February 9, 2020

1. The Lord is exceedingly _____ for the relationship He has with His people.

- a. After severely chastising Israel for their idolatrous sins, the Lord assured His people that He had returned to them with compassion. There is hope in God's _____.
- b. Out of His jealous love, the Lord promised that the temple, the place of divine worship, would be built in spite of the opposition against it. Right _____ must always be primary.
- c. Out of His jealous love, the Lord promised a prosperity that extends far beyond city boundaries. Christ will build His _____.

2. Because of His jealousy for His people, the Lord is very _____ with nations who are at ease in their sin and their opposition to the people of God.

- a. The Lord is very angry with nations who have great power and use it to do _____ to the people of God.

b. The reality is that the people of God are often surrounded by _____.

c. The Lord provides the means necessary to throw down every enemy of His people.

1) The Lord often uses rival _____ to terrify those who stand against Him.

2) The Lord also uses _____ workmen to see His enemies subdued and brought to salvation.