

ZECHARIAH

Not By Might, But By My Spirit Zechariah 4:1-7

1. There are some important things that believers can learn from the example of Zechariah.

- a. Be so focused on the person and work of Jesus Christ that you sometimes find yourself to be “under the influence of _____.”
- John Calvin
- b. Recognize that a desire to understand the things of God includes a willingness to admit to Him where your understanding is _____.

“Now if the Prophet when elevated by God’s Spirit above the world, could not immediately know the purpose of the vision, what can we do who creep on the earth, except the Lord supplies us with understanding.” - John Calvin

2. Believers should be encouraged in knowing that the Lord is fully _____ to His people.

- a. The people of God are highly _____ by the Lord.

- b. The Lord enables His people to be His _____ to the world.
- c. The Lord provides an abundant, never ending supply of _____, to every believer at all times and in all situations.

3. The Lord has a great _____ He is doing through His people and He will bring about the success of that work in His time and in His way.

- a. The Lord uses His people in many different ways, but _____ is the One who causes His work to be successful.
- b. There are many seemingly insurmountable _____ to the Lord accomplishing His work, but He will always accomplish all His good pleasure.

“What comes from the grace of God may, in faith, and upon good grounds, be committed to the grace of God, for God will not _____ the work of His own hands.” - Matthew Henry
