1. The Covenant of Grace is first revealed as a _____ of salvation accomplished by the seed of the woman.

- a. The breaking of the Covenant of Works by Adam is the _____ for the Covenant of Grace.
- b. The eternal Covenant of Redemption is the _____ for the Covenant of Grace.

"The covenant of grace is God's solemn _____ to accomplish redemption by Jesus Christ and to apply redemption to all His elect in Christ." - Greg Nichols

2. The _____ addressed in the Covenant of Grace in Eden.

- a. The serpent/ _____ and his seed.
 - 1) Satan used the serpent as his instrument, but God's curse is clearly _____ on Satan.
 - 2) The seed of Satan are all the _____ who are by nature children of wrath.

b. The _____ and her seed.

1) The seed of the woman are those who share her enmity toward Satan; they are the _____.

2) The seed of the woman who will bruise Satan's head is _____.

3. The _____ made in the Covenant of Grace in Eden.

a. God will establish _____ between Eve and her seed, and Satan and his seed.

"God pledges to perpetuate this same enmity in every generation. This is the only way that He will ever rescue any person from sin. This means that His covenant of grace abides the _____ before and after the incarnation of Christ." - Greg Nichols

b. A Son of Eve will _____ Satan in a battle in which He too is wounded.

c. In His death and resurrection, Christ achieved total _____ over Satan and all his hosts.

"Satan is _____ the present ruler of this world with Christ as the predicted future Lord. ... The New Testament proclamation is that the sentence passed upon Satan in Eden has been executed! ... The 'binding' of Satan through Christ is a constantly emerging motif in the New Testament. Satan is 'judged', 'spoiled', and 'destroyed'."
