

AWESOME HOME MAKEOVER

Seven Habits of Highly Effective Families

Various Scriptures

Pastor Mel Svendsen
March 18, 2012

Bottom Line:

Successful, wise families are those that allow the truths of God's Word to impact every facet of life together in the home.

Habits of Effective Families:

1. Christ, as your _____, permeates family life. Matthew 7:24-27; Colossians 3:20-21

2. Core beliefs and _____ are proactively taught. Deuteronomy 6:6-7; Ephesians 6:4

3. Family gatherings and activities are a _____. Deuteronomy 6:6-7

4. Life at home is engaging and _____. Deuteronomy 6:6-7

5. _____ & affirmation are freely and appropriately given. John 15:12; Romans 13:8

6. Everyone shares _____ in the home. 1 Corinthians 13:11; Proverbs 22:6

7. Children are disciplined with _____ and _____. Hebrews 12:10-11; Proverbs 13:24

Ages	Discipline Focus	Teaching
Teen	Discerning Choices	Why Believe
Ages 6-12	Responsibility for actions / attitudes	What To Believe
Pre-K	First time obedience	Who To Believe

Take-Home Builder: Start putting this list into action:

- ___ Express your love daily for your child.
- ___ Pray with your children. Express your needs..ask kids to pray for you.
- ___ When you're away, make communicating with the kids a priority.
- ___ Make up a story; read a story; tell them about your childhood.
- ___ Play games with them; have fun with them.
- ___ Look for teachable moments reinforce to their faith in the Lord.
- ___ Allow for one on one activities together.
- ___ Find ways to express your love for your kids at all ages.
- ___ Instill a vision that God will use them for great things
- ___ Talk with your kids about key issues in their lives
- ___ Give them your full attention when with them.