

- A. What desire do you wish God would grant you before you die?
- B. Before we die, let us have our priorities straight. Prayer Day is an opportunity to reevaluate our priorities, and be sure we are praying for the right things.

Neither Poverty Nor Riches

I. The Striking Petition.

- A. This is a striking petition, because it indicates that Agur is not interested in riches.

- B. This is a striking petition, because it indicates that Agur looks to God for the supply of his basic, earthly needs.

II. The Godly Motivation.

- A. Agur's prayer indicates that his fundamental concern is not with his earthly life, but with his spiritual life.

- B. The two related motives for his prayer are godly motives.

III. The Confident Request.

- A. The prayer breathes a confident trust in God.

- B. With that confidence, let us bring our petitions to Him, at the beginning of this growing season.
