

PSALM 119
God Is Good Even In Affliction
Psalm 119:65-72

Mac Williams, Pastor
March 19, 2023

1. God's servants know that He has proven Himself to be faithful in the _____ and has brought good into their life through the afflictions they have faced.

- a. Even when all things seem to be against them, Christians can be certain that their God always deals _____ with His servants.
- b. Believers must trust the Lord to give them good discernment and knowledge especially when their understanding of His dealings with them is unclear.
- c. God in His goodness, faithfully uses affliction to cause His servants to _____ in their faith and commitment to Him.

2. God's servants are sustained by His goodness to them in the _____ even when the arrogant callously work against them.

- a. God is perfectly _____ and afflictions enable His servants to see His goodness in all that He does.

- b. The hardened state of some unbelievers causes them to oppose believers by plastering them with _____ allegations.
- c. In the midst of disheartening attacks, the Lord enables His servants to find their _____ in Him through His precepts.

3. God's servants learn from experience about God's goodness in their life and the great value of His Word.

- a. Affliction that was meant by others for _____, is meant for good to His servants by the good and sovereign Lord.
- b. It is _____ that enables believers to have a deeper understanding of God's Word.
- c. God's servants are able to see what a gold mine the Word of God truly is.

"The _____ lips which spoke us into existence have spoken the Law by which we are to govern that existence." - Charles Spurgeon