

Wildwood Baptist Church

March 2, 2014

“Mr. Big Stuff (Who do you think you are?)”

Exodus 32: 32; Romans 9: 5

God chooses whom He wants and knows to be His.

Romans 9: 10-13, 14

People accuse God of favoritism and unfairness.

Exodus 33: 19b; Romans 9: 16

Those who are chosen can thank God for His grace.

Those who are lost have no one to blame but themselves.

Romans 9: 17-18, 19-21

Does the potter have the right to make anything He chooses out of the clay?

Could it be that we need to learn to be more patient as He continues to work in us?

NOTES:

Wildwood Baptist Church

March 2, 2014

“Mr. Big Stuff (Who do you think you are?)”

Exodus 32: 32; Romans 9: 5

God chooses whom He wants and knows to be His.

Romans 9: 10-13, 14

People accuse God of favoritism and unfairness.

Exodus 33: 19b; Romans 9: 16

Those who are chosen can thank God for His grace.

Those who are lost have no one to blame but themselves.

Romans 9: 17-18, 19-21

Does the potter have the right to make anything He chooses out of the clay?

Could it be that we need to learn to be more patient as He continues to work in us?

NOTES:

