

Hebrews

13:4 Part 1

1

Are you more prone to find excuses for not showing hospitality, or for creating opportunities to show hospitality?

If you are continually finding excuses to not be hospitable, then most likely you are neglecting this command.

Hebrews

2

The willingness to care for hurting Christians is an application of brotherly love, the law of Christ, that all true believers possess.

Hebrews

3

What does it meant to hold marriage in honor?

To honor something is to consider it valuable, worthy of respect, and to be cherished.

Hebrews

4

What is an honorable marriage?

Hebrews

5

1. How the God defines marriage in the Bible.
2. How the Bible speaks of homosexuality as sin.

Hebrews

6

Genesis 2:18,24

Hebrews

7

Matthew 19:4-6

Hebrews

8

God defined marriage at creation and continued to hold fast to the original definition.

Hebrews

9

2. How the Bible speaks of homosexuality as sin.

Hebrews

10

Who has the authority to define marriage,
the Creator or the creature?

*They may be able to change the laws of their land, but they cannot change
the laws of God.*

Hebrews

11

Leviticus 20:13

"If a man lies with a male as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination; they shall surely be put to death; their blood is upon them."

Hebrews

12

Does this sound like a relationship that God honored?

Hebrews

13

Genesis 19:4-5, 24-25

Hebrews

14

1 Timothy 1:8-10

Hebrews

15

According to this passage, does God consider homosexuality worthy of honor?

Far from it, it is lawless, disobedient, ungodly, sinful, unholy, profane, and grouped with a list of other egregious sins.

Hebrews

16

1 Corinthians 6: 9-11

Hebrews

17

With that in mind should Christians celebrate and honor homosexual marriage?

No, is because it is a celebration of a person who has decided to remain in unrepentant sin, which will end in eternal damnation.

Hebrews

18

Romans 1:18-32

Hebrews

19

Who is it that approves of and honors homosexual relationships?

Hebrews

20

Marriage is to be honored by all, not all marriage is to be honored.
