BIG APPLICATIONS FROM PSALM 145

1. Commit to exalting God every day (verses 1–3).
2. If you're a parent, explain God's works to the next generation (verses 4–7).
3. Affirm that God is always good—which is most clearly seen in his gift of Jesus (verses 8–9).

“The LORD passed before him and proclaimed,
‘The LORD, the LORD, a God merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness, keeping steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but who will by no means clear the guilty....’”

4. Thank God that he is reigning (verses 10–13).

“Seven weeks ago my husband went to Heaven, and the Lord has used Psalm 145 to minister to me in various ways. I think of how the psalmist recalls God’s goodness and His faithfulness....These things are true in Psalm 145. This is not a made-up myth. This is God’s inspired Word...[and God] has shown Himself strong on my behalf. I am so grateful I have sensed the peace of God in ways I never have in my whole Christian life. Psalm 145 has ministered to me greatly in the last few weeks....”
