Four Objections to Formal Sufficiency

- “Traditions” in Scripture (e.g., 2 Thess. 2:15; 3:6; 1 Cor. 15:1-7)
- The Canon Objection
  - You must what know the canonical documents are in order to live rightly before God.
  - The Bible doesn’t contain which ancient documents are canonical.
  - Therefore, the Bible does not contain all information necessary to live rightly before God.
- “Traditions” in Church History
  - J.N.D. Kelly: “Throughout the whole period, Scripture and tradition ranked as complementary authorities, media different in form but coincident in content. To inquire which counted as superior or more ultimate is to pose the question in misleading and anachronistic terms.”
