

He Drank the Poison Cup,
John 18:1-11

It is timely that we are in John 18:1-11 in view of the alteration of normal life due to Covid 19. This incident in John 18:1-11, records the beginning of the massive trials of our Lord Jesus, leading to His death and resurrection and the lifelong trials of Jesus disciples. It is a passage of scripture that declares the power of Jesus over the forces of darkness. From this passage, I will point out four reasons to rejoice.

First, rejoice in Jesus' resolve to save, v1-2

Second, rejoice in the power of Jesus' Word, v3-6

Third, rejoice in His protection, v7-10

Fourth, rejoice in His substitution, v11
