

The Blessed Ones

This first stanza is commenced by the Hebrew consonant _____. This consonant is the initial letter of several _____ words in Scripture, including some of the _____ of _____. For instance, it is the initial consonant for 'el (_____), 'adonay (_____), and 'eloah (_____). The two basic words for _____, 'av (_____) and 'em (_____) are derived from 'aleph words. As a side note, the letter aleph in certain words can be _____ (consonantal) or _____ (mother of reading).

This Psalm section starts off with the double usage of one word—_____.

Deut. 33.29 — _____ art thou, O Israel...

Job 5.17—Behold, _____ is the man whom God correcteth...

Psa. 1.1—_____ is the man...

To be _____ is to see oneself in a state of _____. "True Biblical Christianity is not _____ and _____." (Spurgeon) The believer that walks more _____ in the _____ and maintains _____ fellowship with Christ will be able to be _____ in the _____. "The way might be _____, the commandments _____, and the disciplined life might be _____, but a thousand heaped-up _____ are still found in godly living!"

Moreover by _____ is thy servant _____: and in _____ of them there is great _____. (Psa. 19.11)

Why are they _____?

Their _____ with their God is _____. _____ is not _____ in their flesh. The word of God (even the _____) are of great importance to them. They have made the _____ more important than _____, _____, and _____.

- _____ in the _____ (v.1)
- _____ Him _____ (v. 2)
- _____ in His _____ (v.3)
- _____ His Precepts _____ (v.4)
- _____ His _____ (v. 6)
- _____ His _____ (v.8)

The Word of God has a _____ presents in their life. It is _____ that these saints have reached some level of _____ that the _____ to sin is no longer _____. Yet, their adherence to truth brings a powerful _____.

- Instead of a life of _____ there is _____ (v.3)
- Instead of a life of _____ there is _____ (v. 6)
- Instead of a life of _____ there is _____ (v.7)

The _____ saint has a purposeful petition before God. I will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly (v.8). The Psalmist is _____. Yet, this resolve is steeped in _____ upon the power of God. Our _____ to God should always be marked by a _____ resolution to _____ the commands. _____ without _____ and _____ without _____ is worth _____!

It is God's good _____ that must be enacted in our life. He did not need _____-righteousness but _____ righteousness. This is the prayer that God seeks to hear His saints pray. _____, as with His many promises, He will _____ it.