

PSALM 119
God Uses Our Suffering To Help Others
Psalm 119:73-80

Mac Williams, Pastor
March 26, 2023

1. Believers must remember that, like all people, they have been specially created by God and should therefore serve Him wholeheartedly. (vs. 73 & 80)

- a. The fact that man is the greatest wonder of God's creation should be a motivation to _____ Him with the life He has given.
- b. Sin has marred all of creation so man's only hope is a new _____ in Christ Jesus.
- c. Maturity in the faith requires that believers follow the Lord with a _____ motivated obedience.

2. Relationships with fellow believers must be a priority for all Christians. (vs. 74 & 79)

- a. One of the most important helps in walking out the faith is _____ examples of others who are applying the Word of God to their lives.
- b. Believers have things to _____ from their application of God's Word to their lives that are helpful to others.

3. God is sovereign over all things, including the various trials He brings into the life of His people. (vs. 75 & 78)

- a. Believers can be thankful to the Lord that He always brings about _____ in His servants to accomplish His good purposes in their lives and give them a testimony that can help others.
- b. Unethical attacks from those who are enemies of the faith make things difficult, but they are responsible before God for their behavior and will _____ to Him.
- c. The focus of believers, even in difficult times, is the _____ of God.

4. It is the Lord Himself who is able to meet the deepest needs of His servants, especially in times of affliction. (vs. 76 & 77)

- a. The God who brings affliction is also the One who brings _____ to His servants in their suffering.
- b. God sustains His servants with _____ mercies so that in their weakness they are enabled to live with a delight in the Lord.