

Heaven Is a World of Love
John 17:24-25

As we come to the end of John 17, and the upper room discourse, it is very clear that what is on Jesus mind is His unity and love of His Father. This love is the basis of love between His disciples on earth, and everlasting life with Him and beholding His glory in heaven. It is intimacy with His children He desires. This is the heart of Christianity. This is the heart of every true church. As we make our final consideration of this prayer, let us see what wonderful things the Lord has for us.

I. Summary of John 17

II. Heaven, v24-25