

Mark 16:1-8
The Lord of Glory Alive

The first day ...

- I. Anticipating Gloom
 - A. Cold Stone
 - B. Lifeless Jesus
- II. A Stunning Discovery
 - A. Warmed Hearts
 - Amazed
 - Alarmed
 - Assured
 - B. He is Alive!
- III. Astonishing News
 - A. “Unbelievable” Report?
 - B. Overwhelmed Messengers
 - C. Astounding Message: “You will see Him!”

... a new era.

Children, Listen ...

1. What were the women planning to do?
2. What problem did they realize they were going to have?
3. What did they find when they came to Jesus’ tomb?
4. Why didn’t they find Jesus?
5. What did the young man tell them to do?

The Day of Days

The resurrection of Christ on the first day of the week changed everything forever so we rightly commemorate it with special holiday celebrations every year. Our tradition stirs an extra lively sense of the event making Resurrection Sunday a special blessing to Christians everywhere. Of course we don’t stop there, or should not, as every single Lord’s Day proves to be a weekly celebration of the resurrection power of Christ – that’s one reason why we worship on Sunday and not Saturday. Now, poised on the first day of the week the Christian Sabbath serves as a weekly reinvigorating blessing to give us good prospects of service to the Lord in our day to day work week. All in all the resurrected Christ is daily etched on the Christian’s mind and as we walk with him daily may it be that His near presence to us would make our hearts continually burn within us.