

THE COVENANTS
The Covenant with Moses
Exodus 19:1-6

Mac Williams, Pastor
March 31, 2013

1. God's covenant with Moses continues to unfold the gracious _____ He gave in Genesis 3:15. His giving of the Law forged and protected the nation of Israel through which the promised Redeemer would come.

2. The essential features of the covenant God made through _____.

- a. The Mosaic covenant was made in the context of the divine _____ God accomplished in bringing Israel out of slavery to the Egyptians.
- b. In the Mosaic covenant God gave His moral and ceremonial _____ to Israel, with great implications for the church and the world as well.
- c. God gave the _____ day as a token of His covenant to be a reminder to all generations.

3. The importance of God's moral and ceremonial _____.

- a. God's moral law gives a clear and _____ standard of what is right and wrong.

b. God's moral law continues to reveal how the Redeemed have the delightful privilege of _____ to God.

c. God's moral law makes it clear that there is great blessing for faithful obedience and dire consequences for _____ disobedience.

1) When Israel rejected Jesus Christ, the promised Redeemer, they were _____ as a nation by God.

2) When individuals fall short of what God's Law requires of them, they come under the _____ of God for their sin.

d. God's ceremonial law reveals that it is a great privilege to be in the gracious presence of God, but it also shows that there must be a perfect sacrifice of _____ to atone for the sin that separates us from God.

"Scripture ... identifies God's purpose for the tabernacle, His special _____, dwelling, and communion with His people." - Greg Nichols

"In the bloody sacrifice of Christ, see the horrid nature of _____ ...it made Christ veil His glory, and lose His blood." - Thomas Watson

"Christ's death and _____ are inseparable in effecting salvation." - Thomas Schreiner