

BUILDING GREAT RELATIONSHIPS!

Resolving Conflict Biblically

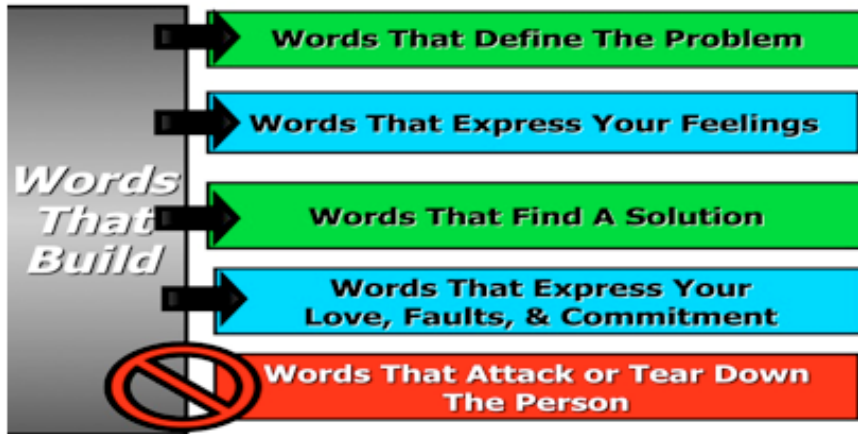

Romans 12:18-21 & Various Scriptures

Pastor Mel Svendsen
March 1, 2015

Bottom Line:

A heart ready to forgive and resolve conflict biblically is a necessity for maintaining a vibrant walk with God and healthy, growing relationships in our lives.

1. Become an authentic _____ inspector of your speech and conduct. Romans 12:18

2. Trust in the present _____ of God when wronged by others. Romans 12:19

3. Respond _____ to perceived wrongs in spite of the contrary messages around you. Romans 12:20-21

ACTION STEPS:

1. Choose to forgive like _____ forgave us! Matt. 6:14-15

A) Be motivated by your _____ for Christ. 2 Cor. 5:14

B) Pray for the _____. Matthew 5:44

C) Confront in _____ according to Matthew 18:15-17.

D) Own any responsibility _____ may have in the problem. Matthew 7:3

2. Stay in the _____ and worship! Colossians 3:16

3. If necessary, share your progress with one trusted, mature believer.

Conclusion: