New speaker in debate - God - We know these words are true

I. Let us First Look at Verses 1 - 3
   A. Some believe that God is addressing Elihu not Job in the first part here
      1. But verse 1 says "Job" (also V. 3)-Later God addresses others -42:7
   B. Main point in all is none of us right to question God's dealings
   C. We may wonder why God doesn't speak sooner- but in His time
      1. Every dispute in church needs to be resolved by God's word
         a. Isaiah 8:20; John 5:39
   D. The "LORD" answers Job (Yahweh) in whole debate only used in 12:9
      1. God coming as Job's covenant God to reconcile- Exodus 3:7, 8
   E. Whirlwind reminds us of God's majesty- We receive word with awe
   F. V. 2- Even man like Job can speak wrongly about God - Job 42:2, 3
      1. We all must give account for all our careless words- Matt. 12:36
      2. "Who is this?" - difference between man and God- Rom. 9:20; Ps. 8:4
   G. Verse 3- God asks Job to get ready to respond as a man

II. Then Let Us Look at Verses 4 - 7
   A. Earlier God said "Who are you?" - Now He says "Where were you?"
      1. If we can understand creation, how can we understand providence?
      2. Also comparison of God and us in regards to time -Jn 8:57; Ps. 50:21
      3. Christ can answer this - "I was there" - John 1:1; Prov. 8:22-27
   B. V. 4- Foundations not literal foundations- Job 26:7; Ps. 104:5
      1. God saying He made the earth so has right to govern it
      2. "Answer if you have understanding" - He doesn't - Rom. 11:33, 34
   C. V. 5- God created the earth to His exact dimensions and measurements
   D. V. 6- God laid the cornerstone- This also speaks about Christ
      1. I Cor. 3:11; Ephesians 2:20; Isaiah 28:16; Matt. 21:14; Ps. 118:22
      2. Corner is place where 2 walls come together - Jews and Gentiles
   E. V. 7 - "morning stars" and "sons of God" - different ideas about these
      1. Some think first part is stars (Ps. 148:3; 19:1) second is angels
      2. Some think both parts to stars- some think both parts to angels
         a. Revelation 12:4; Job 1:6
      3. They sang -always proper for creation to worship in song-Jam. 5:14
      4. Angels rejoiced at creation -but also they also rejoice in redemption
         a. I Peter 1:12; Luke 15:10
      5. It is our duty to praise God for His creation- Ps. 104:24

III. Finally Let us Look at verses 8 - 11
   A. These verses deal primarily with God's relationship to the seas
   B. Verse 8 - Seas like a birth- Come from womb of God
   C. Part of God's Deity is power over seas- Gen. 9:11, 15
   D. Sea in the bible is often an allegory for evil- V. 11- Proud waves; Ps. 2:1
      1. Jesus spoke to demons like to seas - Mark 1:25 with 4:39
      2. God restrains both- seas (here and Psalm 104:9)
         a. Evil - Rom. 1:24, 26, 28; Ps. 76:10; 65:7; 2 Tim. 3:8, 9
      3. Both look promising but don't deliver-Heb.11:25; Ja.1:15

Conclusion: What is our response to all these wonderful works of God