God's Judgment and Grace for the World: "We Have a Strong City"

Here & Now : Egypt ~ One God, One World, One People

Isaiah 19-20

PASTOR'S PRAYER

Almighty God, You alone are our Wise Sovereign. We confess this morning our relentless attempts to find our refuge in our feelings, in our resources or in our knowledge. O Lord, reveal these idols of the heart to us today. Grant us a vibrant, reverent fear of you. Send again your Spirit to quicken our hearts of our sin and rebellion that we might turn in repentance and faith to our Savior, our Defender who delivers us. Lord, give us confidence this morning of the futility & emptiness of our self-made securities and hopes. Cause us to run to our only true and abiding and worthy refuge and sanctuary which is Christ Jesus and abandon all else for His name's sake. Amen & Amen.
