THE LORD'S DAY WORSHIP

Sunday, 6 March, 2022

✦ Indicates standing if able

WELCOME & GREETING

Pastor Jesse M. Crutchley

INVOCATION

CALL TO WORSHIP

Psalm 107:1, 29–32

"Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever... He calms the storm, So that its waves are still. Then they are glad because they are quiet; So He guides them to their desired haven. Oh, that men would give thanks to the LORD for His goodness, And for His wonderful works to the children of men! Let them exalt Him also in the assembly of the people, And praise Him in the company of the elders."

✦ HYMN

Nº 01

Jesus! What a Friend for Sinners!

CONFESSING CHRIST

Luke 21:10–19

"Then He said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. And there will be great earthquakes in various places, and famines and pestilences; and there will be fearful sights and great signs from heaven. But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and prisons. You will be brought before kings and rulers for My name's sake. But it will turn out for you as an occasion for testimony. Therefore settle it in your hearts not to meditate beforehand on what you will answer; for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to contradict or resist. You will be betrayed even by parents and brothers, relatives and friends; and they will put some of you to death. And you will be hated by all for My name's sake. But not a hair of your head shall be lost. By your patience possess your souls."

CONFESSION OF SIN

Ruling Elder Joe Mackes

Confessional Prayer

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Isaiah 45:22-25

“Look to Me, and be saved, All you ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other. I have sworn by Myself; The word has gone out of My mouth in righteousness, And shall not return, That to Me every knee shall bow, Every tongue shall take an oath. He shall say, ‘Surely in the LORD I have righteousness and strength. To Him men shall come, And all shall be ashamed Who are incensed against Him. In the LORD all the descendants of Israel Shall be justified, and shall glory.’ ”

❖ HYMN

Nº 02

Create in Me a Clean Heart; I Love You, Lord

TITHES AND OFFERINGS

Giving of Our Gifts

- ❖ Doxology: Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Him all creatures here below,
Praise Him above, ye Heav’nly hosts;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

- ❖ Gloria Patri: Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end; Amen, Amen.

(Children ages infant - 3 years old are now dismissed to the Nursery)

I Love You, Lord

CCLI Song #25266

Text and Music by Laurie Klein
arr. by Eugene Thomas

I love You, Lord, and I lift my voice
We love You, Lord, and we lift our voice

The first system of music features a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time with a key signature of one flat. The melody is in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are centered under the notes.

to wor - ship You, O my soul, re - joice!
to wor - ship You, O my soul, re - joice!

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are centered under the notes.

Take joy, my King, in what You hear;
Take joy, our King, in what You hear;

The third system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are centered under the notes.

may it be a sweet, sweet sound in Your ear.
may it be a sweet, sweet sound in Your ear.

The fourth system concludes the piece with the same melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are centered under the notes.

SERMON NOTES

“Not a Hair of Your Head Shall Be Lost”

Acts 27:1-38

1 And when it was decided that we should sail to Italy, they delivered Paul and some other prisoners to one named Julius, a centurion of the Augustan Regiment. 2 So, entering a ship of Adramyttium, we put to sea, meaning to sail along the coasts of Asia. Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, was with us. 3 And the next day we landed at Sidon. And Julius treated Paul kindly and gave him liberty to go to his friends and receive care. 4 When we had put to sea from there, we sailed under the shelter of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. 5 And when we had sailed over the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. 6 There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, and he put us on board. 7 When we had sailed slowly many days, and arrived with difficulty off Cnidus, the wind not permitting us to proceed, we sailed under the shelter of Crete off Salmone. 8 Passing it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea. 9 Now when much time had been spent, and sailing was now dangerous because the Fast was already over, Paul advised them, 10 saying, “Men, I perceive that this voyage will end with disaster and much loss, not only of the cargo and ship, but also our lives.” 11 Nevertheless the centurion was more persuaded by the helmsman and the owner of the ship than by the things spoken by Paul. 12 And because the harbor was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised to set sail from there also, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of Crete opening toward the southwest and northwest, and winter there. 13 When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their desire, putting out to sea, they sailed close by Crete. 14 But not long after, a tempestuous head wind arose, called Euroclydon. 15 So when the ship was caught, and could not head into the wind, we let her drive. 16 And running under the shelter of an island called Clauda, we secured the skiff with difficulty. 17 When they had taken it on board, they used cables to undergird the ship; and fearing lest they should run aground on the Syrtis Sands, they struck sail and so were driven. 18 And because we were exceedingly tempest-tossed, the next day they lightened the ship. 19 On the third day we threw the ship’s tackle overboard with our own hands. 20 Now when neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small tempest beat on us, all hope that we would be saved was finally given up. 21 But after long abstinence from food, then Paul stood in the midst of them and said, “Men, you should have listened to me, and not have sailed from Crete and incurred this disaster and loss. 22 And now I urge you to take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. 23 For there stood by me this night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I serve, 24 saying, ‘Do not be afraid, Paul; you must be brought before Caesar; and indeed God has granted you all those who sail with you.’ 25 Therefore take heart, men, for I believe God that it will be just as it was told me. 26 However, we must run aground on a certain island.” 27 Now when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors sensed that they were drawing near some land. 28 And they took soundings and found it to be twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little farther, they took soundings again and found it to be fifteen fathoms. 29 Then, fearing lest we should run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern, and prayed for day to come. 30 And as the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship, when they had let down the skiff into the sea, under pretense of putting out anchors from the prow, 31 Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, “Unless these men stay in the ship, you cannot be saved.” 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the skiff and let it fall off. 33 And as day was about to dawn, Paul implored them all to take food, saying, “Today is the fourteenth day you have waited and continued without food, and eaten nothing. 34 Therefore I urge you to take nourishment, for this is for your survival, since not a hair will fall from the head of any of you.” 35 And when he had said these things, he took bread and gave thanks to God in the presence of them all; and when he had broken it he began to eat. 36 Then they were all encouraged, and also took food themselves. 37 And in all we were two hundred and seventy-six persons on the ship. 38 So when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship and threw out the wheat into the sea.

Announcements at Severn Run...

TODAY

Welcome to those who are visiting with us! Please take time to fill out a green Visitor's Welcome Card on the table in the narthex and help yourself to some information about SREPC. Please place these cards in the Tithe Box (which is located on the table before entering the sanctuary)—Thank you!

Today after the morning service, we will have a cake/punch reception in the narthex to celebrate our 31st anniversary as a church. We praise our faithful God!

Evening Service - 5pm - Pastor Jesse will continue in the book of Proverbs. A Spaghetti Dinner will follow. All attending, please bring a salad, dessert, or bread. Thank you!

WOMEN'S SPRING FELLOWSHIP

Ladies of all ages welcome to join us next Saturday, March 12th, 2 pm - See the insert in the bulletin for more details!

WHAT IS THE DEACON'S FUND?

The 'Deacon's Fund' is used to bless and assist those within this particular congregation, then the wider Church at large, and finally those outside of the visible Church. In the past God has used the donated funds to help congregants pay their mortgage, to provide help with car and home repairs, and to supply food and supplies for the Pop-Up Pantry. For anyone who would like to give to this fund, there are envelopes in the Narthex, or you may write 'Deacon's Fund' in the memo of your check. Thank you!
