

“Our Sins, How Despicable!”

James 2:10-13

Introduction:

Main Point: Like Adam attempting to hide his sin, we face the continual temptation to minimize our sin (avoiding embarrassment) against the thrice holy God. Fortunately, He extends mercy to those who confess their sin and seek forgiveness in His Son, Jesus Christ.

I. “God requires perfection in every respect”

II. Failure in part is failure in the whole

III. “God, be merciful to me a sinner”

Conclusion:
