Series: John
Sermon: John 1:35-51

1. In the first chapter of the Gospel of John, Jesus is referred to by many different titles and descriptions.

A. List all of the ones that you can find:

B. In what way do these titles and descriptions help in defining Jesus correctly?

2. Upon learning about the Messiah, Andrew immediately told his brother, _____ and Philip told his friend _____.

A. Why is it often the case that Christians struggle to witness family and friends the most?

B. How can, or have, you overcome the obstacles, and witness to them.

3. Even though these early disciples did not have the completed gospel to share, they were still eager to share the revelation that they had been given. What should this mean for us, who now have the complete gospel?

4. Some Christians struggle to tell people about Jesus because they don't believe that they know enough, and they reserve witnessing for only "super Christians." Are they right to be concerned about the weightiness of the matter? Are there dangers in sharing "too soon." How would you advise such a person?

5. Andrew was a disciple of John the Baptist. What might this reveal about him? What can be known about him that would lead us to believe that he was a good disciple.

6. Jesus referred to Nathanael as an "Israelite indeed." The Pharisees were also Israelites. Are all Israelites, "Israelites?" See John 8:44, Romans 2:28, Romans 9:6-8, and Gal. 3:6-8 to understand John 8:47 even more.

B. What character trait did Jesus see in Nathanael that reflected his true Israelite status? _____
