Sin unto Death or Obedience unto Righteousness

Rom. 6:15-18

Paul thought slavery was a good picture of what happens when grace invades our life and sets us free from _____

We are all _____

Sin is no longer master, _____ no longer reigns.

Shall we _____ because we are not under law but under grace?

Freedom from the law is _____ lawlessness –

slaves _____ their masters

Slavery to sin is to commit acts of _____

Tom Schreiner, “Those who commit their lives to _____ will be eternally condemned.”

Obedience is the obedience which comes from _____

Instead of patting the Roman Christians on the back, Paul praises _____

You became obedient from the _____ Christian truth forms and shapes those who _____ it.

Christian freedom is at the same time _____

The choice before us: should I serve sin or serve _____?
