1. How is Christ both the “cornerstone” and the “head of the corner?” How does this impact our views of God, Christ, and the Scriptures?
2. While we have been saved by Christ, how are we in danger today of being like the wicked tenants in the parable of Matthew 21?
3. How does the Lord’s commitment to the vineyard connect to the assurance we have in our own salvation? Is this something that we take for granted as Christians in America?
4. Discuss how our Sovereign Lord takes the horrors of Good Friday and makes them “marvelous” in our eyes. Why is “He is risen” the most amazing truth for the follower of Christ?
5. Our king has entered the gate of righteousness, and He has brought us home to glory, and yet, we haven’t yet reached our destination. Why does “Hosanna” have a place on the lips of every Christian who awaits that blessed reality?
