GARAGE SALE FOR ELIAS CERDA'S EYE PROCEDURE

Our brother Elias was diagnosed with a degenerative corneal disease for which there is no known cure called keratoconus. The minimally invasive out-patient procedure which will significantly slow the process costs around $6K and is not covered by insurance. On Saturday, May 25, the Cantrells will host a garage sale up here at the chapel to raise funds toward Elias Cerda's eye procedure. They are seeking donations over the next month as well as volunteers for service opportunities in this worthy effort.

INSIDE THE MIND OF A MINISTER

In May of 2010, our founding pastor Jackson Boyett delivered the graduation address to Providence Theological Seminary. That message can be read online here: <https://rb.gy/32egst>
