

- 1) Is Moses referring to an actual speech impediment in Ex. 4:10? Or does Moses mean that he does not speak the Hebrew language very well because he was brought up by the Egyptians and was fluent mostly in their language? Would this be why Aaron does so much speaking?
- 2) What would have happened if the Jewish people had accepted Jesus as their King on Palm Sunday?
- 3) How could Jesus be forsaken by God (Mark 15:34)?
- 4) Can the doctrine of the resurrection be found in the Old Testament?
- 5) I have heard many Christians call the brothers of Jesus half-brothers, but that is confusing to me. Jesus' actual conception did not come from one of Mary's eggs if I understand correctly. Can you shed some light on the terminology?
- 6) Why were portions of the Old Testament written in Aramaic?
- 7) How important is it to learn the Biblical languages?
- 8) What criteria should a young person use to evaluate Christian colleges?
- 9) Is there a distinction between the Tribulation and the Great Tribulation?
- 10) How do you understand the problem of evil?
