Discussion Questions

The following questions are designed to be used by parents in discussing the sermon with their children, but can be used by anyone in discussing the sermon with others:

1. What stood out to you in this sermon? Why?
2. Verse 1 speaks of “the calling to which you have been called.” Who has received this calling? What is this calling?
3. Who is the greatest example of humility? Explain.
4. How is a trained horse a picture of gentleness?
5. What Old Testament term is equivalent to the word ‘patient’? (It is found in Exodus 34:6.)
6. What is the ultimate act of love in the Bible? Explain.
7. How is unity developed in a Christian church?

Going Deeper:

These questions are designed for the believer to use in prayer with his/her Lord, and in discussion with brothers and sisters in the Lord:

1. How did this sermon challenge your thinking, or grow your understanding?
2. How does this passage fit into the context of the whole epistle?
3. How is biblical humility different than the humility promoted by our postmodern culture?
4. How is it that pride fractures a church but humility unifies a church?
5. How has Christ dealt gently with you?
6. Practically, what does it look like to be patient with your brothers and sisters in the church?
7. How does confronting a brother’s sin relate to this passage?
8. Why should we be eager to maintain the unity of our church?
9. What is the number one way you should be affected by this sermon this week?
