1. God calls His people to account for their _____ condition.

- a. The Lord indicts His people for their _____ in all He has done for them.
- b. The Lord points out their willful _____ regarding a relationship with Him.
- c. The Lord expresses concern because of the _____ sin has become on the nation.
- d. The Lord has been faithful to discipline them but they have _____ His correction.

2. God calls His people to account for their lack of genuine _____.

- a. Both the rulers and the people are called to _____ to the Lord God.

"Christians should not only pray for their _____, they should also pray that God will give them righteous magistrates." - Edward J. Young

- b. The people have been engaged in the acts of worship God prescribed, but their _____ is in rebellion to Him.

3. God calls on people to seriously consider their _____ and the grace He offers.

- a. God has mercifully spared the sinful nation for the sake of a _____ of those who believe.

"Consequently, the attitude of the nation toward the righteous should ever be one of deep gratitude. Instead, the righteous are hated by the world, even though for the _____ of the righteous the destruction of the wicked is postponed." - Edward J. Young

- b. Graciously, the Lord calls on people to _____ clearly about their sin and turn from it.
- c. It is reasonable to expect that God will bring _____ to those who consent to what He says and obey.
- d. It is reasonable to expect that those who persist in sin and unbelief will _____ under God's judgment.

"Those that will not be governed by God's scepter will certainly and _____ be devoured by His sword." - Matthew Henry
