

THE COVENANTS

The Covenant With David

Psalm 89:1-4

Mac Williams, Pastor

April 7, 2013

1. The covenant with David continues to elaborate on God's gracious promise given in Genesis 3:15. In it the Lord reveals that the Messiah will be a _____ in the line of David.

2. The basic features of the covenant with David.

a. The _____ of the covenant are David, his royal descendants, and ultimately Jesus Christ.

b. The _____ of the covenant with David are that his immediate heir would build the temple, his descendants will continue to rule, and his throne would continue perpetually in Christ.

3. The rule of Jesus Christ is a _____ dominion with multiplied physical and observable results.

"The sovereign authority of Christ may be viewed either as necessary, or as _____. Viewing Him as God, it is necessary, inherent, and underived: viewing Him as Mediator, it is official and delegated."

- William Symington

"We call it a _____ kingdom, inasmuch as the great design of its existence is spiritual, notwithstanding that, among the things connected with it, there may be many that are material, and perhaps even worldly." - William Symington

4. It is essential that the Lord Jesus Christ reign as _____.

a. In order for Christ to build God's spiritual _____, the Church, He must be King to accomplish the salvation of His people.

b. In order for Christ to overcome the _____ of His people He must be the sovereign, almighty King.

1) The enemies within our _____.

2) The enemies in the _____ around us.

c. In order for the Church to _____ with Christ, He must reign as King.