1. Prayerful lament is given by the Lord for His people to use in times of deep _____.

- a. Believers are to come to the _____ when they are in despair over their sin.
  - 1) The Lord is faithful to _____ His people for sin.
  - 2) All sin deserves the wrath of God, but His people can and must appeal to His _____.
- b. Believers are to come to the Lord when they are in despair over _____ ailments.
- c. Believers are to come to the Lord when they are in despair because of the _____ of God.

- d. Believers are welcomed by the Lord to express their deepest _____ and dismay to Him.

"If you have felt the deafening _____ of heaven, reach out to the Lord and ask Him for help. If you battle the dismay of wondering whether God still hears, keep pouring out your requests. Don't stop asking." - Mark Vroegop

2. Prayerful lament is given by the Lord so that His people can be assured that He hears and answers their _____ of despair.

- a. In lament, believers can move from a fear of the wrath they deserve, to absolute confidence in the very _____ help of the Lord.
- b. God grants a certainty to His people that He _____ their prayers of desperation.
- c. It is certain that the enemies of God will either be _____ of their sin and repent, or they will suffer under an everlasting shame.
