

PSALMS

God's Help In Distress Psalm 4:1-8

Mac Williams, Pastor
March 31, 2019

1. Believers can confidently _____ on the Lord and trust Him for help in times of distress.

- a. Believers can be confident of the Lord's help because, by His grace, He is the _____ and the maintainer of their righteousness.
- b. Believers can be confident of the Lord's help because He has proven Himself to be faithful in the _____.

2. The sons of men are called to give careful consideration about their relationship with the Lord.

- a. The sons of men, even though they may be people of importance, have a heart affection for things that will prove to be _____.
- b. The sons of men should consider that God in His _____, sets believers apart to be in a covenant relationship with them.
- c. The sons of men should _____ deeply and honestly about their standing before God.

d. The sons of men should put their _____ in the Lord—in the righteous and atoning sacrifice of the Lamb of God.

3. The blessings that the Lord pours out on His people are far _____ than anything unbelievers receive in this life.

- a. The sons of men may enjoy great material advantages, but believers have the blessed _____ of the Lord even in times of difficulty.
- b. The sons of men may enjoy times of outward happiness, but believers have a deep and enduring gladness of _____.
- c. The sons of men may put great effort into outward security, but believers have the Sovereign Lord personally _____ over their life.