

ISAIAH
Sin and Redemption
Isaiah 59:1-20

Mac Williams, Pastor
April 9, 2017

1. The people are confronted with _____ and its consequences.

- a. Sin creates a _____ between God and His people.
- b. Sin _____ the thoughts, words, and actions.
- c. Sin results in all manner of vain foolishness.
- d. Because of sin, _____ injustice is the norm.

2. The people _____ and take responsibility for their sins.

- a. Confession involves an acknowledgement of the _____ of sin.

- b. Confession involves an admission of particular _____ before God—who knows all.
- c. Confession involves a recognition of the public consequences of sin.

3. The Lord promises to _____ with judgment and redemption.

- a. The Lord sees that there is no one who was willing to _____ in the gap for these sinful and misguided people.
- b. The Lord graciously engages His _____ strength and righteousness on behalf of the people.

“When righteousness is His coat of arms, salvation is His crest. In allusion to this, among the pieces of a Christian’s armor we find the breast-plate of righteousness, and for a helmet the hope of salvation, and it is called the armor of God, because He wore it first and so fitted it for us.” - Matthew Henry

- c. The Lord will rightly judge those who remain His _____ and will not allow them to destroy His people.
- d. The Lord will send a Redeemer who will deliver _____ who come to Him in repentance.