

“The Gospel to All People”

Revelation 7:9-12

SERMON NOTES

Are the people that God loves, people that we love?

Jesus wants to be King to all people,
in all tribes, in all nations.

According to Revelation 7:9, God loves diversity.
Our eternal life with Him in heaven will be with people from all ethnicities and backgrounds.

Statement from The Christian & Missionary Alliance:

The Alliance has always had a desire to follow God’s call, to bring His hope to the nations, and to carry out our vision of All of Jesus for All the World. By caring for suffering and overlooked people through 2,000 U.S. churches and more than 700 international workers serving in 70 countries, the C&MA longs to see Jesus’ name proclaimed in every tribe and tongue to fulfill the Great Commission.

That’s our mission – to go and make disciples of all nations, to bring all of Jesus to all of the world.

God wants them found.

Revelation 7:9-12

⁹After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, ¹⁰and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

¹¹And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, ¹²saying, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Matthew 24:14

And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.
