

INTRODUCTION

- we want what is different to be different still

1. Our life and struggle (55:1-2)

- our physical need pointing to a greater spiritual need

- that attention-grabbing word “free”

- the complaint given to the generous Shopkeeper

- why are we discontent?

2. God’s call to listen (55:2-3)

- “come to the waters” = “come to Me”

Jn. 4:13-14; Is. 44:3

- those who listen to God’s call

3. God’s promise and provision (55:3-5)

- the promise of an army leader like “David”

- the promise of an army of aid

4. The call to respond (55:6)

APPLICATION

Is. 26:3-4

“The secret [to contentment] is Christ in me,
not me in a different set of circumstances.”

– Elisabeth Elliot

Phil. 4:10-13, 19
