1. In light of the prophecy of the nations streaming into the church in the last days, the Jews are called to walk in the light of the Lord in the _____.

However ...

- a. The Lord abandoned the Jewish people because they rejected His _____ and became filled with false teachings and superstitions.
- b. The Lord abandoned the Jewish people because instead of putting their confidence in _____, they trusted their wealth and strength.
- c. The Lord abandoned the Jewish people because they rejected Him as their God and worshiped _____ instead.

"Both small and great will speedily be overtaken by the _____ which lays low a whole nation; because amidst such great wickedness there was no reason to expect deliverance from the vengeance of God." - John Calvin

2. In light of the promise of God's final day of reckoning, it should be recognized that God is the exalted One, while man is _____.

- a. The Lord will bring low all that causes man to feel _____ and lofty.
- b. The idols that people build their lives around will be thrown away because they prove to be absolutely _____.

"The rightful Sovereign will triumph over _____ pretenders." - Matthew Henry

- c. When God arises in judgment, men will _____.

*"The day of man was a day in which man worshiped the work of his own hands, and that day is past; Yahweh, who has remained apparently _____, now arises to come and perform His work of judgment."
-Edward Young*

- d. In light of the majesty of God, we should recognize the foolishness of considering people as _____ than God.
- e. Our hope before God: God forsook the Jews in judgment when they _____ Jesus as the Christ; which resulted in blessing for all the nations--including the Jews.
