

Introduction

- I. An important aspect of our parenting is warning our children of the path of the wicked.
- II. Such warnings are important because we live in an increasingly wicked world.

Proverbs for Parenting

(8) Warning Our Children of the Path of the Wicked

I. Exposing the Evil Way

- A. This Word of God gives us a peek into the hearts and lives of the wicked so that we may teach our children, as Solomon did. What are the wicked and evil like?

B. The life of the wicked is a well-worn path of wickedness.

II. Calling to Diligent Avoidance

- A. There are six commands in vs. 14 and 15 that emphasize this: don't begin to go down that path. Avoid the path.

B. There are two applications of this we must see.

III. Teaching the Grand Goal

- A. This grand goal is understood when we see that there are two paths: the way of the wicked and the way of the just.

B. The goal of this path is heaven - the perfect day.
