

ACTS

Faith in Trials

Acts 16:25-40

Mac Williams, Pastor

April 3, 2022

1. There is a need for an active faith in the Lord when we are being treated in _____ ways.

a. In faith, Paul and Silas took their concerns to the Lord in _____.

b. In faith, Paul and Silas sang _____ to God.

“How high have we climbed in Psalm 140—from being hunted by the evil man to dwelling in the divine presence; so doth _____ upraise the saint from the lowest depths to heights of peaceful repose.”

- Charles Spurgeon

c. In faith, we recognize that God’s _____ go far beyond what we might expect.

2. In faith, we understand that God uses the gospel to bring about life transformation.

a. The gospel was the hope for the _____ who was in great fear.

b. The _____ was the hope for every member of his household.

3. Faith grants us the _____ to stand for what is right in the face of evil behavior.

a. Paul was concerned about honoring the Lord, because the Word of God makes it clear that every civil magistrate is a minister of God whose job is to punish what is _____ and reward what is good.

b. Paul stood for what was right as a help to the _____ in Philippi.